

September Prayers

Theme: Praying God's kingdom into the sphere of the labors of our hands.

The Prayer

1. Father, I worship and honour you as my source. I bow before you and give you all the glory for where I am today and every visible advantage in my life. I came naked into this world and with nothing; all I am and have received have come from you.

2. I thank you for where I am and what I have in my hands today. From it has emerged a great future beyond my imagination. John 6:8-12

3. I ask that you strengthen me with might in my inner man, that Christ may dwell in my heart by faith and my eyes and heart be not distracted to cleave to the dust (lower things of the flesh). Purify my heart and cleanse me, such that the hands I use to labour may be pure and remain sanctified unto you. By this cleanliness, bring great increase Father in all my labour. Ps 119:36-37 2 Samuel 22:20-21

Do not allow the rod of wickedness or oppression rest upon me.

4. Praying mercy: My eyes are solely upon you Lord. Grant me in your mercy the inheritance laid up for me in my career. Open my eyes to see and show me your will, lead me into the field of my inheritance that my children's children may eat from the fruits of this labour I am enduring now. Ps 147:7-11, Psalm 33:16-19, Psalm 123:1-3, Col3:23-24

5. Grant unto me skill and understanding concerning what I have set my heart upon, that I may be among the top 1% in this field globally. Send into my life mentors, teachers and books that will inform, cultivate, educate and build me up.

6. Into every place I enter, grant me favor with the set authority within the establishment - that they may lift me into positions and grant me opportunities to serve in the fullness of my capacity. Genesis 39:5-6

Daniel 1:9

7. I ask Father, as Solomon did, for a wise and understanding heart in my interaction with people. Teach me your principles so that I build social contracts with people as I relate with them by making the right investments into their lives. Bring me into the right networks through your favour, that as I give to those less privileged than me with no emotional attachments to the gifts and service, so shall people you have granted as custodians and authorities over certain things on the earth that concern my destiny also release goodwill towards me without any strings attached. Luke 6:32-38

8. I ask, Father that you teach me by the Holy Spirit to be wiser than the beasts of the field and the fowls of the air that seek to steal, abuse and oppress. I ask that you break the rod of any oppressor who may seek to sit as “God” over me. When men rise up against me in groups, divide their tongues and cause the strife and anger to cease. Job 35:10-11, Ps 140

9. I ask that you remove from my network any person who has been planted by satan to disrupt your plan for my life. Let no voice of accusation against me stand. Cause the light you have placed within me to shine brighter and brighter as I make satisfactory progress in all I do. Psalm 144:10-14.

Declaration.

Looking back and reflecting on the last three months of my life, I do it today with a deep sense of satisfaction and joy at the turn of events in my life, this could only have been by the power of the Spirit.

I can gladly say I have been focused and intentional concerning the work of my hands. By reason of the kingdom of God received in prayer, the mercy of God has produced a great and measurable increase in the fruits of my labour and continuous peace in my soul.

God has blessed me with insight, skill and understanding such that I excelled in everything that I laid my hands on. This recently caused someone in authority to send for me granting me new opportunities.

The scripture which says – “kings shall come to the brightness of your rising” was literally fulfilled in my life. My work showed I possessed the spirit of understanding.

I built solid and lasting relationships learning every day how to make solid deposits into the lives of others. This, in turn, caused God to pour out His grace in abundant measure on me, giving me material sufficiency.

I walked in wisdom through valleys of the shadow of death without any harm coming near me. My only experience has been one of continuous growth and increase. My family has been blessed by the labour of my hands with no member being in a place of lack.

For this I thank you, Father. I bow my head and worship you, the fountain of life, source of light and the wisdom of my labour.
